I'm a big fan of VSCode's minimalist approach, but one thing is bugging me. I would like to hide editor-tab icons.

The icons are from extensions: `git-lens` & `hexdump` for VSCode . Also the split-editor icon would be nice to hide.

```
.tabs-and-actions-container .editor-actions {
    display: none !important;
}

Optionally, show them on hover:

.tabs-and-actions-container:hover .editor-actions {
  display: flex !important;
}
```
